ADDITIONAL FLOOD MONEY.

Agriculture Department Employees as Amateur Merchants.

Employees of the Department of Agriculture have become ice cream and candy merchants for the benefit of the flood sufferers of the Middle West.
Each of them recently invested a small amount of money in ice cream and candy, and sold it at a profit to other employees of the department. The returns were reinvested and the business extended.

A committee from the "merchants" yesterday paid in to The Washington Herald relief fund $14, which was forwarded for the succor of the flood sufferers.

The merchandising is continuing, and the "merchants" say they will raise more.

RECALL IS PROPOSED.

Randle Highlands Citizens After Chairman Who Becomes Derelict.

The recall of committee chairmen is being considered by members of the Randle Highlands Citizens' Association, following the introduction of a resolution calling for amendments in the constitution of the association by P. B. McKinney at the meeting Tuesday night.

It is proposed to recall a chairman who fails on two successive occasions to report resolutions placed before his committee. The proposed change will be voted on at the next meeting of the citizens.

Attention was paid by the citizens to what they term the "waste paper massacre" resulting from the blowing of waste paper from the Anacostia flats to the streets in Randle Highlands. It was decided to extend the "clean city" movement to the Anacostia flats, and a project is to be made to the District Street Cleaning Department.

Efforts of the association to have the District acquire for public parks the sites of Forts Davis and Dupont have been approved by the Federated Citizens' Association. Following the announcement of the co-operation of the Federated association, it was decided to renew activities to accomplish the acquisition of the property.

The Commissioners have denied charges made by citizens of discrimination against Randle Highlands in the matter of obtaining public parks. They declare they will follow the usual plan of obtaining for public parks the old forts. This plan is instituted on the half-and-half principle, as was done in the case of the proposed extension of Rock Creek Park. Should this be done, the Randle Highlands citizens would be relieved of expense.

15, at Masonic Hall, Ninth and F Streets, scopic views, and is under the auspices of the District of Columbia Christian and Endeavor Union.

CLEAN-UP OFFICIALS
WORKING ON PLANS

Committee Is Confident Money Will Be Forthcoming to Insure Success.

Arrangements for Clean-city Week have assumed much greater proportions this year compared with last.
The District will witness this year the biggest campaign against trash and waste ever waged here. As plans now stand, the city is in for a spring housecleaning rivaling in thoroughness any undertaken by the neatest of housewives. Everything that can be of the least possible service in the work is being pressed into duty by the members of the clean-city committee. It is predicted that with the close of the campaign on April 19 many familiar eyesores in the District will have vanished.

Although contributions are coming in, the committee still needs money to make its work thorough. Officers of the committee expect, however, that before the opening of the work, April 14, enough citizens of the District generously will have contributed the needed amount. Mrs. Frederick W.
Coville, 1338 California Avenue Northwest, has been authorized to receive contributions.

W. H. Richardson, chairman of the clean-city committee, yesterday addressed the pupils of the Business High School to enlist their co-operation. Dr.
Arthur L. Murray, secretary of the committee and a member of the Health Department, will address the pupils of Eastern High School tomorrow. This school children are expected to do much valuable work during the campaign. To fully explain its importance to them, a daily period of instruction in sanitary matters will be given at each school during the week.

Practically all the civic organizations of the District have promised their help. Among the latest to announce their assistance are the visitors and volunteers of the Associated Charities.
The visitors will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon to determine the nature of their work in the campaign.

CITY SENDS DELEGATES.

Washingtonians Are at St. Louis to Participate in Drainage Congress.

Four delegates will represent Washington at the third national drainage congress, which will open for a three days' session at St. Louis, Mo., this morning. The District Commissioners named six, but only four were able to go.
A. M. McLachlen, president of the Mc-Lachlen Banking Corporation; M. O.
Leighton, chief hydrographer of the Geological Survey; C. G. Elliott, chief of the Drainage Bureau, of the Department of Agriculture, and A. D. Morehouse, engineer in the Department of Agriculture, are the delegates.
Plans for the creation of a national drainage commission, with ample revenue and powers for carrying out the drainage and reclamation of 75,000,000 acres of swamp lands in the United States, will be laid before the congress.
David B. Francis, former Governor of Missouri, is president of the national drainage congress, and Edmund T. Perkins, of Chicago, formerly of the Reclamation Service, is chairman of the executive committee. An urgent invitation was extended to President Wilson to attend and address the congress, but he declined.

OHIOANS ARE GRATEFUL.

Committee Thanks President for Help During Floods.

A committee of prominent citizens of Columbus, Ohio, headed by Mayor George Karb, called on President Wilson yesterday personally to thank him for the aid given by the Federal government in the recent floods in Ohio.
The committee also called on Secretary of War Garrison to thank him for the interest shown by the War Department in the flood situation, and also to inquire whether it would be possible to appoint a committee of army engineers to consider the widening and deepening of the Soloto River to prevent a recurrence of the recent floods. Secretary Garrison promised to take up the matter within a short time.
